

ACTIVATE YOUR POSSIBILITIES

Symbiotix is the US-based, dedicated scientific medical education agency powered by the global footprint of HAVAS Health & You. The Symbiotix difference arises from an integration of people, partnership, and scientific activation.

PEOPLE

We bring a team of experts to support your business: scientists and clinicians who understand the data and their relevance for clinical practice, industry professionals who have been in your shoes, and creative specialists who can help us bring your science to life.

PARTNERSHIP

With expertise in industry best practices and regulatory guidance, we work as an extension of your team to drive collaboration and engagement leading to best-in-class deliverables.

SCIENTIFIC ACTIVATION

We focus on identifying creative solutions to your challenges, layering digital innovation, data analytics, and incorporation of the patient voice onto a strong scientific foundation.

A PREMIER MEDICAL COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY

At Symbiotix, our mission is to bring together inspired thought leadership and activated science by cultivating an environment where we celebrate big ideas and empower curious, resilient, and passionate people.
