

Trusted partners in delivering meaningful and outstanding contributions to improving healthcare

Fully independent company

Over 450 employees based in the UK, US, Singapore and China, providing a fully inclusive service to both global and local teams

Strong company values recognised through external bodies; the first agency of our kind to be certified as a B Corp

WWW.COSTELLOMEDICAL.COM

Why Choose Us?

Exceptional scientific quality

The best customer service in the industry

Integrated teams with technical expertise

Excellent value with predictable budgets

The ability of our people is integral to what we do and we pride ourselves on providing our clients with talented and stable project teams

We have a rigorous recruitment process: in 2024 we hired 0.5% of 18,578 applicants who applied for scientific roles

Get in Touch

Our Medical Communications services span medical affairs, publications and creative offerings. Get in touch with Nia Hamer to find out more

MEDICAL AFFAIRS

Nia Hamer

Global Head of Medical Affairs
nia.hamer@costellomedical.com

Award-Winning Excellence

Key Services

Our expert cross-functional teams work seamlessly alongside our clients to achieve success in both strategic planning and project execution

Medical Affairs

Bringing scientific rigour, technical insight and engaging solutions to the planning, development and dissemination of medical and scientific information and education

Publications

A wealth of experience in the planning and writing of publications across HEOR and clinical topics

Creative

Combining scientific understanding with captivating design through compelling graphic, digital, and motion design solutions

Health Policy & Public Affairs

End-to-end support for the delivery of impactful, evidence-based health policy projects

Health Economics

Bespoke global and local cost-effectiveness and budget impact models, with a focus on clinical validity, flexibility, HTA-level rigour and user-friendly design

Real-World Evidence

Methodologically robust and clinically appropriate observational study design and real-world data analysis to generate strategically focused real-world evidence

Literature Reviews & Synthesis

Setting the standard in systematic and pragmatic literature reviews, meta-analysis and indirect treatment comparison

Statistics

A multidisciplinary approach, combining strong technical capabilities, careful consideration of the clinical context and excellent communication

Expertise

We also have dedicated teams specialising in the below contexts, in recognition of the specific challenges and solutions required in these areas

MedTech

Dedicated to medical devices, diagnostics and digital technologies

Rare Diseases

Providing expertise in the complex area of rare and orphan diseases

Gene Therapies

Overcoming the unique challenges facing these innovative treatments

Patient Engagement

Enabling respectful, meaningful and sustainable patient involvement in projects across our services

Technical Innovation

Technical solutions in areas such as software research and recommendations, automation and web and application design

Giving Back

We are dedicated to giving back by sharing our expertise to improve health and healthcare globally. We do this through the delivery of Pro Bono projects, outreach work with local schools and our Global Health Internship program. For example, we delivered >2,500 days of Pro Bono work for >60 clients in 2024

